

AKAMAGWUNA EMEKA WILLIAM

+234 816 581 9785 | emekaakamagwuna@gmail.com

6 Comrade Ejiofor Close, off New General Hospital Road, Asaba, Delta state

EDUCATIONAL TRAINING

Delta State University, Abraka

Bachelor of Science in Anatomy and Cell Biology

- Attended from 2012 to 2016
- Developed analytical and multitasking skills to cope with rigorous coursework
- Took electives in Statistics to broaden skillset

Madonna International College, Asaba, Delta

West African Secondary School Leaving Certificate

- Attended from Sept. 2006 to June 2012
- Member of Library club

SKILLS

Coding Languages

JavaScript, HTML/CSS

Desktop Publishing

Microsoft Office Suite

STRENGTHS

- Innovative Thinking
- Creative Problem Solving
- Cultural Awareness
- Ability to work efficiently without supervision
- Self-driven Learner

CAREER SUMMARY

Physical and Health Educator

Madonna International College | Feb. 2018 to March 2019

- Established a basketball team within the student body
- Scheduled and motivated students through physical training activities
- Responsible for training, teaching and conditioning student-athletes in preparation for all interschool competitions

Anatomy Lecturer

School of Health and Information Management, University of Benin Teaching Hospital | Feb. 2017 to Dec. 2017

- Supervised final projects for 15 students
- Guided student lab assignments, including animal dissection and body part identification
- Established learning objectives and competency standards for student assessment

Morgue Assistant

Pathology Department, Federal Medical Centre, Asaba | May. 2015 to Oct. 2015

- Assisted in performing about 2 autopsies weekly for 6 months
- Performed several histological investigations with supervision
- Participated in and supervised embalming activities

MEMBERSHIPS

- Nigerian Red Cross - Basic First Aider
- Anatomical Students Society of Nigeria (ASSON)